

hDMT Privacy Statement

hDMT saves contact information (name, e-mail, organisation) of individuals and organisations that are interested in Organ-on-Chip. This contact information is used for sending out group mailings:

- Invitations (eg. to Organ-on-Chip Conferences)
- Information on Organ-on-Chip and hDMT (eg. the quarterly hDMT e-mail newsletter, press releases, etc)

We do not share your contact information with other organisations.

The only exception is Mailchimp, a web-based service that we use to send our group e-mails from. The privacy policy of Mailchimp is here: <https://mailchimp.com/legal/privacy/>

If you no longer want us to send you any or only specific group mailings from hDMT, please send an e-mail to i.haest@hdmtechnology. We then will adapt your contact information accordingly.

You can also click on the unsubscribe-link in any group mailing you received from us. Your data will be removed from the specific mailing list immediately.

If you no longer want us to save your contact information at all, please send an e-mail to i.haest@hdmtechnology. We will then remove you from our contact database.
